Sub: Opportunity for Graduate students as Business Development Executive.

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to offer a rewarding career opportunity in our Bank to your final year students pursuing graduation in your college. We propose to conduct a campus selection programme at your college for an exciting sales career in our Bank.

This programme will be held every year in which the final year students undergoing graduate courses in your college will be have the option to appear for the selection test and join Axis Bank's Sales Channel as Business Development executive.

The following support will be required from your institution to ensure the smooth conduct of the selection programme as stated above.

- Space for display of Axis Bank Posters and other advertisement material and hosting of such informative communication in your college website/Intranet
- Suitable premises for interaction with interested student for a Pre Placement presentation
- The college will provide computer lab facility to conduct the selection test.

The selected students will undergo a fifteen day internship at our branch. The students will be issued the appointment letter after successful completion of their internship and will be placed in our branches in the sales channel upon joining.

Thanking You

Your's sincerely
