Sub: Celebration of Rashtrapita Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti and International Day of Non-violence

Sir/Madam,

You are requested to celebrate International Day of Non-violence on the occasion of Rashtrapita Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti on Saturday, October 2, 2021. You are also requested to administer to the participants the 'Pledge of Non-violence'.

The United Nations General Assembly in 2007 decided to observe the International Day of Non-violence each year on 2nd October, the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. This day is dedicated to preserve non-violence, mutual appreciation among communities and safeguard fundamental rights, namely freedom, justice and equal opportunities. Its aim is also to strengthen the spirit of democracy and secularism as well as to cultivate among individuals an aptitude for inclusive living and respect for diversity, by means of social education and communal harmony.

You may declare the week (October 2, 2021 to October 7, 2021) as the Week of Non-violence and organize a range of programmes each day. In view of the ongoing pandemic, these programmes can be conducted in an online mode, at your convenience. The programmes may focus on a whole spectrum of themes such as communal harmony, unity in diversity, inclusivism, social justice, youth empowerment, rural development, environmental sustainability, human rights and individual responsibility. These themes may be elaborated upon in the form of essay writing, poetry recitation, speeches, debates, quizzes, artistic/dramatic expressions, public exhibitions, demonstrations, documentary screening, etc.

The session was conducted live on Microsoft teams.

Mr. Anupam Acharya started the session with words like pink, blue, aggressive, caring, car, saviour, cooking and many more and asked students whether they are meant for girls or boys. For few words students replied as both but for many words their answer was it is meant for particular gender. Sir asked from where these beliefs are coming from. Sir thrown a light that these thoughts or beliefs have come to us from impression that has been left to us over multiple years of conditioning. These conditioning comes from various places like our upbringing, our media, our friends and relatives.

Sir highlighted that we celebrate men's day to bring light upon gender equality. The Indian society expect from the men to play a traditional role of bread provider, saviour, strong, aggressive, the one who take decision and women need to play the role of care taker taking care of family and kids. But sir emphasis that for the growth and development of society these traditional roles of men and women need to be merged together.

Mr. Anupam shared the real time examples of children who have grown better and are good in academics as well as achievers in life who are looked after by both the parents, where father has cooked for kids, attended parent's teacher's meeting, provided emotional support to the kids.

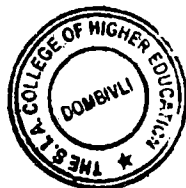

Sir is of opinion that Gender equality or building positive role models comes from home. Sir suggested to the students that gender biases have to go away. We need to make sure that we don't make the same mistake that our predecessors did. We need to start building positive role model for our society.

After the session there was healthy discussion among students on the topic, He vs She.

The session ended with the vote of thanks.

Student Council/Library Club Navratri Celebrations

Report

Date: 14th October, 2021

Student Council and Riddler's Library Club celebrated the festival of Navratri on 14th October 2021, as it was also a day to invoke the blessings of Goddess Saraswati, the goddess of Knowledge. The participants were invited in the college to perform, and the entire event was covered live on Microsoft Teams.

The event began with the traditional Aarti performed as a ritual in the college. All teaching and non-teaching staff sang the bhajans and performed the aarti. Thereafter, the focus shifted to library, where the stage was set up for covering live performances of the students. The session began with lamp lighting by Principal Mam, Bharati Mam- Convenor of Library Club, and Mahesh Sir – Convenor of Student Council. Mahesh sir also spoke on the importance of Navratri in the contemporary times. Thereafter, a video was played where students of different cultures explained how Navaratri is celebrated at their home, and the significance of the same.

Non-teaching staff member Ajit continued the event with a bhajan showcasing the plight of the farmers, who are suffering and sharing their problems with God, asking for refuge. Sanjana from FYBCOM sang a fun-filled celebratory number from Bollywood, representing the happiness of the farmers whose problems have been solved by God. Divya from SYBBI performed a classical dance to represent the happiness and faith people have developed on God, due to which they feel they have nothing less in life.

Another devotional performance was by Prachi from FYBBI, who showed the innocence and purity of love that God and his devotee share.

Khushi from FYBCOM turned on the tempo by performing a dance on how modern Radha is troubled by Krishna of modern times, and the kind of solution she offers to keep herself happy. This tempo was continued by Sakshi, who danced on another fun number about a couple who plan to elope and get married. The event was concluded with a group dance by Sukanya and Poonam of FYBCOM, who complied a mashup of different songs representing the fervour and excitement the youth have during Navratri. It would have surely made the audience also to get up and move to the tunes.

The entire event was bound together by a well-drafted anchoring, that linked each performance to the next, and connected each performance to the seven colors representing Navratri. The event ended with a small speech by Principal mam. Thereafter, all teachers also danced to the tunes of Garba songs for the traditional celebrated of Bondla. Overall, it was well-organized program and was special because it was the first event conducted offline since the college closed down due to the pandemic.
